History

His area of study was the origin of worship to the Three Goddesses.

One day he stumbled into Tractas, as he got lost in the outskirts of the jungle. While recovering there, he got interested in the magic of Rhodius Whyatt, which seemed to be celestial of origin. His source seemed familiar to him.

He eventually found an ancient temple to Nayru, believed to be the oldest found so far, which made him quite succesfull.
